

SWELL meeting 2002
in Basle on Friday 18th January

9.40 at the latest: arrive at Basel SBB

10.00 – 10.30: coffee (or tea) in the English Department reception area, 2nd floor up spiral staircase. The meeting itself takes place in the house next door, through the gateway across the courtyard, the so-called "Cave", room 8. (See plan sent with outline programme.)

10.30 – 10.45: announcement and self-introductions

10.45 – 11.45: Zurich block

Hans Martin Lehmann, 'The lexicogrammar of relative constructions'(10.45 - 11.15).

Sebastian Hoffmann, 'Low-frequency complex prepositions'(11.15 - 11.45)

11.45 – 12.30: Berne block

Margun Welskopf, 'Language at the workplace: air traffic control'

Barbara Mott Willoughby, title to be announced.

12.45 – 14.00: lunch in the Picobello restaurant (Blumenrain 12)

14.15 – 15.15: Fribourg block

Didier Maillat, 'The syntax of meaning: possessive constructions and reference frames'. (14.15 - 14.45)

Chryso Hadjidemetriou, 'The Arabic-speaking minority in Cyprus'(14.45 - 15.15)

15.15 - 16.00: inter-university national research council project

Peter Trudgill, Yvonne Dröschel, Mercedes Durham and Babette Neukirchen, 'The linguistics of English in Switzerland'(15.15 - 16.00)

16.00 – 16.30: tea (or coffee):

16.30 – 18.05: Basle block

Shui-Ching Ho, 'Tonalized English without words' (16.30 - 17.00)

Guillaume Schiltz, 'Funktionale Aspekte angelsächsischer Zaubersprüche'(in German; discussion in English) (17.00 - 17.30)

Wendy Swanson, 'Modes of co-reference as an indicator of genre'. (17.30 - 17.50)

Pius ten Hacken, 'The English computational morphological lexicon: current state and outlook'. (17.50 - 18.05)

18.05 – 18.15: review and plans for 2003

18.45 – 20.00: dinner at Spillmann's restaurant (Eisengasse 1)