

English Department

NewsAbout usResearchStudiesConferencesStaffLibraryIT-Services & Corpora

Subsites

Personal SitesProject Sites

Event Sites

[Trauma Conference
2009](#)ECoLa 2010Peer Mentoring GroupSANAS

SWELL 2013

NewsVenue

Programme

DatesAbout UsFAVAZurich English StudentDegrees AwardedJoyce Foundation

Programme

Programme Overview

The conference will take place in room KOL-G-217.

9.30h - 9.45h	Welcome and Conference Opening
9.45h - 10.15h	Paper 1: Dieter Studer (University of Zurich) "Old English Dry-Point Glossing: When, Where, Why?"
10.15h - 10.45h	Paper 2: Nadine Boller (University of Lausanne) "Language Motivation in Isolation. A Case Study of Arslanbob"
10.45h - 11.15h	Coffee Break
11.15h - 11.45h	Paper 3: Franziska Thurnherr (University of Basel) "'How can I offer support?' Identity construction and relational work in email counseling"
11.45h - 12.15h	Paper 4: Kira Boulat (University of Fribourg) "Are you committed? A pragmatic account of commitment and commitment attribution"
12.15h - 13.30h	Lunch Break
13.45h - 14.15h	Paper 5: Florent Perek (University of Basel) "Cross-constructural determinants of syntactic productivity"
14.15h - 14.45h	Paper 6: Gerold Schneider (University of Zurich) "Using an automatic parser as a psycholinguistic tool"
14.45h - 15.15h	Coffee Break
15.15h - 15.45h	Paper 7: Richard Zimmermann (University of Geneva) "Dating hitherto undated early English texts based on text-internal criteria"
15.45h - 16.15h	Paper 8: Martin Hilpert (University of Neuchâtel) "A new look at asymmetric priming and its role in language change"
16.30h - 17.15h	Business Meeting
From 18.00h	Conference Dinner: Restaurant Commihalle